Comments:

This cemetery was discovered while preliminary engineering for the above development was being completed. The HP office was contacted promptly and an archaeological survey to determine the boundaries was completed by Jeannine Kreinbrink of NES. She felt there could be up to twelve people buried here. Current plans are to leave the cemetery in place.

Elisha Rouse was the oldest son of George and Betsy Zimmerman Rouse. He was born in Virginia and he married Julia Ann Utz on October 2, 1816 in Boone County. They had ten children, the last one dying before the age of ten. George Cornelius was the sixth child. See Cemetery File for more genealogical information.

This cemetery appears to have never been documented by the Fitzgeralds or the DAR. After Julia's death in 1880, there were apparently a number of court battles over the land, lasting into the twentieth century. The Anderson family acquired the land in 1929.
